

FAQ Turkey Creek 5k

What kind of Trails?

Trails are technical single track and are challenging.

Where are bathrooms located?

Bathroom facilities are available at the Start/Finish Line area.

What if I cannot participate once I have registered?

All race participant purchases are final. If you cannot participate, the entry fee will not be refunded and cannot be transferred to another race or another competitor.

Can I run with headphones?

No, mp3 players and other audio devices are not permitted. The sound of nature surrounding you will be music to your ears!

What if I am unable to finish the race?

Any runner dropping out of the race must notify a volunteer at a staffed Aid Station or at the Start/Finish Line. The athlete will be responsible for paying a large bill if a Search & Rescue team is sent out on their behalf and they are not on the race course.

Will there be a lost and found?

Yes, all lost and found items will be at the Registration area.

Where on the course can my friends/family watch the race?

We recommend having your friends/family watch the race at the Start/Finish Line area.

Can someone else pick up my bib number and race packet?

Race numbers will only be given to family, friends or anyone else other than the participant with a photocopy of the participant's government-issued photo I.D. No exceptions will be made.

Turkey Creek 5K Basic Course Rules:

- Numbers must be visible on the outside and front of runners' clothing.
- All Runners: It is your responsibility to check in at the Aid Station in the event you feel you need immediate medical attention.
- Only attempt to pass another runner when it is safe for both you and the other runner to do so.
- When passing another runner, make every attempt to pass on their left, unless it is unsafe. Announce your intention to pass by saying, "passing on your left" (or right, if it is unsafe to pass on their left).
- Provided it is safe to do so, you must yield to any runner who announces his/her intention to pass, by stepping off the trail.
- No weapons, alcohol, glass bottles, illegal drugs or pets will be permitted on the trails during the races. Violating any of these rules will result in runner disqualification.
- No strollers on the race route.
- Violating any of these rules will result in runner disqualification.
